Description: The CGJRSCP will be powered by Rhino Den This program will cover proper movement patterns and techniques required in training for both competitive (athletes/athletics) and non-competitive (Recreational trainers) attendees. This program will cover basic training techniques using body weight training, weighted balls, resistance bands and sleds. Attendees will be up through an athletic warm up and a challenging bodyweight routine. This program will be progressive as it proceeds through the 8 weeks. Consistency in attendance of this program will be imperative.
